Limited tickets available for Florida Orchestra's Sting gala concert

ST. PETERSBURG, FL – The response to The Florida Orchestra's 50th anniversary gala concert featuring Sting has been overwhelming, with only limited concert tickets and sponsored dinner tables still available.

At least a couple hundred fans lined the block outside the TFO Ticket Center in downtown St. Petersburg on Monday before tickets went on sale at 9 am to subscribers only.

As of Friday, a limited number of $450 tickets were available on a first-come, first-served basis to subscribers by calling the ticket center at 727-892-3337. These tickets are not available online. Tickets -- if any are available -- will go on sale to the general public at 9 am Monday, Oct. 2.

For those interested in a pre-concert cocktail reception and a post-concert dinner with Sting and TFO Music Director Michael Francis, a few sponsored dinner tables remain. Tables for 10 include VIP concert tickets and start at $25,000. For details on the gala, please contact our development office at 727-362-5424.

"An Intimate Evening with The Florida Orchestra and Sting" is December 9 at the Mahaffey Theater, which seats about 2,000. Under the baton of Michael Francis, the 16-time Grammy winner will be joined by a 3-piece band with music supervised by Rob Mathes (Sting, Bruce Springsteen, Renée Fleming, and more) for 90 minutes of Sting's most celebrated hits including Every Little Thing She Does Is Magic, Englishman In New York, Roxanne, Every Breath You Take and Fields Of Gold, among many others. Concert tickets do not include gala reception or dinner. This season's 50th anniversary gala concert is generously sponsored by Schmidt Investments of South Florida.

The gala concert is TFO's only major fundraising event. The orchestra is thrilled to have such remarkable support for our 50th anniversary season!
